DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

- 1) Applicant's election without traverse of invention I, drawn on claims 1-12, in the reply filed on 12/30/2004, is acknowledged.

Claims 13-25, are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim.

Specification

- 2) Cross-Reference to Related Application is not recited on page 1 of the Specification.
- 3) Reference to Figure 1 should be removed from the Abstract.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

- 4) Claim 10 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 10, the phrase "if required" renders the claim indefinite.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5) Claims 1-10, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lewecke (DE 196 00 348) (inventor is not named; applicant is Lewecke Maschinenbau GmbH, translated copy provided).

Claims 1-7, 9-10: Lewecke discloses shelving for sheets of different types, including glass sheets. The system includes shelving for storage of remainders, which are stored in vertical compartments for vertical storage of sheets and of a material sheet vehicle with a sheet reception for vertical in-and-out storage and for vertical or horizontal or tilted transportation of sheets to and from processing installation. The system includes extracting the sheets from the storage, cutting the sheets, loading the sheets on the sheet vehicle for transport to processing installation, and placing the remainders back into the storage. The cutting of sheets takes place while the sheets are supported by the storage or while the sheets are out of the storage. The storing of sheets in and out takes place in a computer-controlled manner in a predetermined sequence (pgs. 2-7, and Figures 1-7).

Claim 8: upon delivery of the sheets the glass sheets are mechanically re-positioned, as required in the process.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6) Claims 11-12, are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Lewecke in view of Oberg (4,277,889). Lewecke is applied as above for claim 1, Lewecke is silent on sheets being scribed before dividing the sheets. Oberg discloses glass cutting means by which sheets being scribed before being divided (col. 1, lines 10-20). It would have been obvious to one skilled in the art at the time the invention was made, to combine the teachings of Lewecke and Oberg, because such a combination would provide for precise glass division in the process of Lewecke.
